Surround yourself with History, Natural Beauty and Family Fun

Your commemoration of the 150th Sesquicentennial of the Civil War takes you to the Chickamauga and Chattanooga National Military Park, the nation's oldest and largest Civil War Battlefield. You'll walk where Confederate and Union soldiers fought in the bloodiest two-day battle of the war on September 19-20, 1863. The Visitor's Center offers exhibits, bookstore, Fuller Gun Collection of American Shoulder Arms and 23-minute film. The battlefield is lined with monuments, historical tablets, wayside exhibits and hiking trails. Special interpretive programs such as cannon and musket firings, soldier life re-enactments, walking tours and presentations will be held in commemoration. Check out www.nps.gov/chch/planyourvisit/events.htm for a complete list of special events.

The region's rich military history continues on Barnhardt Circle where cavalry officers' homes surround the parade ground of the former Army Post at Fort Oglethorpe, home to the 6th Cavalry Museum, outdoor family and music festivals and World War II re-enactments.

Don't worry if your family's not up for a trip to the battlefield. There's plenty to entertain everyone – shopping, dining, go-karts, mini-golf, amusement park rides and outdoor adventures.

Your overnight stay in Fort Oglethorpe puts you in the heart of all the action – you're just 15 minutes from downtown Chattanooga or historic Chickamauga and two hours to Atlanta, Nashville, Gatlinburg and Knoxville.

Explore an American treasure.
Reflect on the story
America will never forget.

The 3,000 acre Lookout Mountain Battlefield contains monuments, historical markers, trails, and scenic vistas. Point Park, a unit of the Lookout Mountain

Battlefield, is located on the top of the mountain.

The 120-acre Chattanooga National Cemetery has its origins rooted in the area's Civil War experience. In addition to Civil War veterans, four members of "Andrew's Raiders" and 186 German prisoners of war are buried there along with veterans from all wars.

This area continues its important military contribution with The Army Post at Fort Oglethorpe (1902 – 1946) and Barnhardt Circle, listed on the National Register of Historic Places. The 6th Cavalry Museum, officers' homes and other Post buildings surround the old cavalry post.

Rock City is a true marvel of nature featuring massive ancient rock formations, gardens with over 400 native plant species, and breathtaking "See 7 States" panoramic views. Take an unforgettable journey along the Enchanted Trail and experience the magic of Fairyland Caverns and Mother Goose Village.
